Important points to note

- Within the free travel area, there is unlimited travel (for non-reserved seats) on JR line local trains (including rapid trains), as well as on other specified railway lines and bus services, and on the Tokyo Wan Ferry. When using a designated private railway, bus line or ferry within the free travel area, please show your Chiba 2-Day Pass when boarding.
- For travel on JR lines, if you purchase an Express Train Ticket or Green Car Ticket in addition to the Chiba 2-Day Pass, you can travel on an Express Train or use the Green Car (first-class car) on a local train, respectively, within the free travel area.
- If you purchase a Liner Ticket separately using the Liner Ticketless Service or other available methods, you can use the Skyliner, Evening Liner, or Morning Liner services provided by Keisei Electric Railway within the free travel area.
- You can use the Chiba 2-Day Pass to travel on the Kominato Railway's Boso Satoyama Torokko service by purchasing a separate reserved seat ticket.
- Please be sure to check operational status on the individual company's website, etc. in advance before traveling. The Isumi Railway is currently not operating on any section of its Line; a bus replacement service is being provided instead. To use the bus replacement service, please present the Chiba 2-Day Pass to the bus driver.
- A refund can be obtained from a JR East Ticket Office if you are unable to use the Chiba 2-Day Pass within the specified period of validity. You will need to pay a refund handling charge of 220 yen. No refunds will be given in the event of services being canceled or delayed. (This excludes situations where all services are canceled)
- The non-operation of the Isumi Railway cannot be used as grounds for requesting a refund with no handling charge.
- If the Tokyo Wan Ferry service is canceled before you have started using the Chiba 2-Day Pass, you can request a refund with no handling charge. Please note that no refund will be given if the Tokyo Wan Ferry is canceled after you have already started using the Chiba 2-Day Pass.
